COMICS AND COMMON CORE STANDARDS FOR ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS

The Common Core State Standards (CCSS) are organized around the categories (strands):

READING	RL—Reading Literature/RI—Reading Informational Text/RF—Reading Foundational Skills
WRITING	W—Writing
SPEAKING and LISTENING	SL—Speaking and Listening
LANGUAGE	L—Language

Individual grade-specific standards can be identified by the strand, grade level, and standard number. The designation RL.2.3, for example, stands for Reading Literature, Grade 2, Standard 3.

TEACHING WITH TOON BOOKS

Young readers love comics. In one of the most exciting new trends in education, teachers are using TOON Books, high-quality comics designed specifically for elementary classrooms, to further their students' progress along the CCSS. Comics are excellent teaching tools: young readers are naturally drawn to the detail in the pictures, which makes them want to read the words. Emerging readers and so-called 'reluctant' readers are enchanted by a strong visual narrative and instantly feel at ease with comics' inviting format. TOON Books provide many opportunities for students to make inferences from illustrations, integrate information from text and pictures, acquire new vocabulary supported by the pictures, and recognize the basic elements of the comics format. After reading, students participate in TOON activities like creative writing, reader's theater, and storytelling. With the pedagogical underpinnings presented here, teachers have found it easy to engage young minds in the pleasure of reading. In the words of TOON Advisor, Pulitzer Prize-winning cartoonist Art Spiegelman: "Comics are a gateway drug to literacy."

TOON LEVELS AND COMMON CORE STANDARDS

While the CCS Standards apply to all literature and non-fiction books, comics' unique blend of words and pictures and the TOON Books' unique use of controlled vocabulary means that they lend themselves extremely well to teaching along all the standards. The following standards stand out as particularly excellent examples of comics' fit with the CCSS:
